To Whom It May Concern:

July 8, 2024

I am delighted to write this letter of recommendation for Shan Malik, who completed an internship at Clocky LLC from the 29th of January 2024 to 14th June 2024, in the "Programming with Python Backend for Consumer Products" role. Throughout the internship, Shan demonstrated exceptional technical skills, a strong work ethic, and a keen ability to learn and adapt.

During his tenure, Shan took on the challenge of creating Amazon and Facebook web scraping projects. These projects were instrumental in helping us expand our outreach, network, and find new distributors. By developing sophisticated web scraping tools, Shan enabled us to collect and analyze data on potential distributors and market trends, which significantly enhanced our business development efforts. His ability to automate the extraction and processing of large datasets was particularly impressive and showcased his proficiency in Python programming and data manipulation.

In addition to his work on web scraping, Shan was involved in various other tasks and learning opportunities, including:

1. Backend Development: Shan worked on developing and maintaining backend services using Python and frameworks such as Flask and Django. This experience helped him understand the intricacies tools for business growth.
2. Problem-Solving and Debugging: He demonstrated strong problem-solving skills by debugging and resolving issues in the codebase, ensuring the reliability and performance of our software.
3. Collaboration and Communication: Shan worked closely with cross-functional teams, including marketing and business development, to understand project requirements and deliver high-quality solutions.

Overall, Shan proved to be a valuable asset to the Clocky team. His ability to quickly grasp new concepts and apply them effectively, combined with his enthusiasm for continuous learning, makes him an excellent candidate for any future role in software development, particularly in backend development and data analysis. He was approachable, reliable and a pleasure to mentor.

I am confident that Shan will continue to excel in his future endeavors and would be a great addition to any team. Please feel free to contact me if you need any further information.

Sincerely,
